◆ every believer to experience the peace of God guarding their hearts and thoughts (Phil. 4:7);

◆ the Lord's wisdom to leading brothers and co-workers everywhere in guiding the church life;

◆ the Lord's ruling as King of kings (Rev. 19:6) over all the governments and their decisions;

◆ an increase in mutual contact and mutual care among both active and dormant saints;

◆ all the saints to freshly and joyfully pursue the Lord in our new meeting environment;

◆ the speaking of the ministry to continue and to reach every part of the earth;

◆ the gospel to go out from us to many people who are open due to the current situation.

MINISTRY READING

RAISING UP THE NEXT GENERATION FOR THE CHURCH LIFE - LESSON SEVEN
SANCTIFYING OURSELVES FOR THE SAKE OF THE CHILDREN

BEING ACCURATE WITH WORDS

Correcting Exaggerated Words

Sometimes you exaggerate your words. You must find an opportunity to tell your children that you exaggerated your words on that particular occasion. Your words must be accurate. Sometimes you see only two cows but you say that there are three, or you see five birds but say that there are eight. You must correct yourself immediately. In speaking to your children, you must learn to always correct yourself. You should learn to say, "What I just said was not that accurate. There are two cows, not three." You must show them that words should be sanctified. Everything that happens in the family should be for the building up of Christian character. You must sanctify your words. When your children speak, they should also sanctify their words and be accurate with them. When you say something wrong, you must make a point to admit your mistake. In this manner you will train your children to sanctify their words. Many parents say five when they mean three or three when they mean two. They speak loosely and do not set up good patterns at home. As a result, their children never realize that words are sacred.

All these problems occur because there is a lack of discipline from the Lord. We should experience the Lord's discipline and lead our children to the Lord's discipline. At least we should show them that words are sacred. Every promise should be realized and every order should be carried out. Every word has to be accurate. If we do this, our children will receive proper training.

I cannot tell you how many strong believers would be raised up in our second generation if all the parents of this generation would be good parents. I have always wanted to say this: The future of the church depends on the parents. (Messages for Building Up New Believers, vol. 2, pp. 520-522, 523-524, 525, 526, 534-536, 549)

TO BE SEPARATED UNTO GOD POSITIONALLY

In order for us to be holy, we first need to be separated unto God positionally. With respect to our family, neighbors, colleagues, and friends, we need to be separated. Many Christians, however, are saved, but not separated. Normally, once a person is saved, he should also be separated. This is the reason a believer is called a saint. Consider the majority of Christians today. They are virtually the same as the worldly people. With them, there is no separation. Many of their relatives and friends do not even know that they are Christians. But to be holy is to be separated unto God. This, of course, is a matter of position. (Life-study of Ephesians, p. 28)

As parents, we must do our duty with respect to our children. This means that we should not only teach them, but also set up an example for them to follow. Just as the Lord Jesus sanctified Himself for the sake of His disciples (John 17:19), so parents should sanctify themselves for the sake of their children. Those who do not have children may be free to do certain things, such as sleep late in the morning. But those with children do not have the liberty to do these things. For the sake of their children, they must be restricted. Children always imitate their parents. Therefore, it is the parents' responsibility to set up a high standard and a proper pattern and example for their children to follow. (Life-study of Ephesians, p. 521)
